PARISH GARDA VETTING 2019

As part of the ongoing implementation of our Parish Child Safeguarding Policy and in line with the Diocesan guidelines for Child Protection, we are required to update all Garda Vetting within the Parish by re-vetting all parish staff and volunteers.

This includes anyone and everyone involved in any working group within the parish, Ministers of the Eucharist/Word, choir members, folk group, parish shop workers, sacristans, family mass volunteers, altar servers supervisors, gardeners, hospitality group, etc.

The main reason for this is to ensure that we as a parish implement the Diocesan Child Safeguarding Procedure to the very best of our ability, but also to ensure the protection of the volunteers and staff, who work tirelessly within our church community.

Garda Vetting is now a normal procedure in any organisation both voluntary and work related, and is nothing to be concerned about. All information is treated in the strictest of confidence. The Vetting is only in regards to Child Protection - no motor offences etc will be shown up by this. We would appreciate it if all volunteers could collect a new form and return it to the Parish Office as soon as possible.

If anyone has any issues with completing the forms, please drop into the office during the week where we will be happy to help you out with the requirements.

Faure Requiem Performance

Wicklow Choral Society will perform the 'Faure Requiem' and a selection of other modern classics on Sunday May 26th at 8pm in St Patrick's Church in Wicklow. Faure's Requiem is a wonderful dramatic work loved by everyone. Many people will be familiar with the beautiful Pie Jesu movement made popular by Sarah Brightman. Up and coming young singers Rebecca Kelly and Tadhg Snodgrass will sing the solo roles. The concert also includes a selection from other works - Karl Jenkin's 'Armed Man', Ola Gjeilo's 'Sunrise Mass' and Howard Goodall's 'Invictus: A Passion.' Wicklow and Bray Choral Societies performed the Irish Premier of 'Invictus' in February this year. The composer attended the concert and was so impressed he invited the choirs to sing the work again in Carnegie Hall in New York in June 2020. Come along and enjoy a wonderful evening of music. Tickets are €15.00 available from Earls Newsagents, Eventbrite & at the door.
